We Plow the Fields and Scatter
 Kaitlin Sproules, soloist

*We plow the fields and scatter the good seed on the land,
 But it is fed and watered by God's almighty hand;
 He sends the snow in winter, the warmth to swell the grain,
 The breezes and the sunshine, and soft refreshing rain.
 You only are the Maker of all things near and far;
 You paint the wayside flower, you light the evening star;
 The winds and waves obey you, by you the birds are fed;
 Much more to us, your children, you give our daily bread.
 We thank you, then, Creator, for all things bright and good,
 The seed time and the harvest, our life, our health, our food;
 Accept the gifts we offer, for all your love imparts,
 And what you most would welcome, our humble, thankful hearts.*

Offertory

*With what shall I come before the LORD,
 And bow myself before God on high?
 Shall I come before him with burnt offerings,
 Shall I come before him with yearling calves?
 Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams,
 With ten thousand rivers of oil?
 Shall I give him my firstborn for my transgressions,
 The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?
 He has shown you, O man, he has shown you what is good.
 And what does the LORD require of you but to do justice
 And to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?*
