My Song is Love Unknown

Edwin Childs

*My song is love unknown, my Savior's love to me,
Love to the loveless show that they might lovely be.*

Oh, who am I, that for my sake my Lord should take frail flesh and die?

Sometimes they strew His way and His sweet praises sing;

Resounding all the day Hosannas to their King.

Then "Crucify" is all their breath, and for His death they thirst and cry.

Why, what has my Lord done to cause this rage and spite?

He made the lame to run and gave the blind their sight.

What injuries! Yet these are why the Lord most high so cruelly dies, so cruelly dies,

My Savior dies, my song of love so cruelly dies.

Here might I stay and sing of Him my soul adores.

Never was love, dear King, never was grief like yours!

This is my friend in whose sweet praise I all my days could gladly spend. My song is love.

Richard Brunson has served as executive director-treasurer of N.C. Baptists on Mission since 1992. Prior to his current role, Richard worked as an associate on the NCBM staff, serving as director of disaster relief, Camp Caraway and Christian High Adventure. He is a graduate of Gardner-Webb College and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. Richard is married to Lesley, and they have three grown children.

The flowers in the sanctuary this morning are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Larry Keeter by his family.
